My dear Andrew,

This is to convey my best wishes to you and yours for the New Year which I hope may bring you all, not only "Peace and Goodwil" but also prosperity both in temporal and spiritual things.

I am sorry that Armando refuses to go to ~~you~~ your church, and I have spoken to him about it, but he says that he cannot go so long as he is told that you continue to say he left because I offered him more money; and also that he never did any spiritual good there. Whether you have said this or not I cannot tell but that is the impression which people have gathered from your words, and I think it is time you made it quite clear to your congregation that he left, not for any personal advantage but because you did not wish to have him any longer on the old conditiones, and that it was arranged that he should leave before I made him any offer at all.

God grant that all this ill-feeling may come to an end.

Yours very Sincerely,

Fred. W. Flower
